PRISONER WALKS AWAY FROM WORK DETAIL

Today 08/06/05 shortly after 10:30 a.m. an inmate working on a work detail at the Nutmeg Games in the Broad Street area of Bridgeport requested permission from the corrections officer to use the bathroom. The inmate was granted permission and he walked to the bathroom area and did not return to the work detail. The work detail consisted of 6 inmates who were under the supervision of a Correctional Officer. The Corrections Officer reported the escape to State and Local Police in Bridgeport. Troopers and Bridgeport Police officers responded to the area and initiated a search for the inmate. All Police agencies were notified of the prisoner escape.

The inmate is identified as ANES, Ricardo DOB: 5/27/81

LKA 333 Blatchley Ave
New Haven, CT.

ANES is described as a Hispanic male, 5'10", 230lbs, brown eyes, brown hair, wearing light tan pants, and a white t-shirt.

ANES was a sentenced prisoner who had completed one year of a 3 years sentence for narcotics violations. He was serving his sentence in Cheshire Correctional Center a minimum-security facility in Cheshire.

State Police are conducting the investigation into this escape from custody.

Anyone who has any information regarding the location of this inmate is asked to contact State Police at 203 6962500.
